

GEORGII MOROZ
JUNIOR RECITAL

BARTÓK
SONATA FOR VIOLIN SOLO

MOROZ
CHAMBER SYMPHONY

NOVEMBER 23, 2021 • 8:20 PM

CONSERVATORY CONCERT HALL
YONG SIEW TOH CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

23 November 2021 | TUESDAY

Georgii Moroz

Violin Recital

Ge Xiaozhe, piano

Programme

BARTÓK

Sonata for Violin Solo, Sz. 117

GEORGII MOROZ

Chamber Symphony No. 1 for Violin and Chamber Orchestra

About The Performer

Georgii Moroz was born on April 7, 2001 in Kyiv, Ukraine in family of musicians. The one started to play violin at the age of five. From 2011 till 2019 Georgii was studying in Kyiv Special Music School named after M. Lysenko where he started his performing activities and successfully graduated in 2019 with many honours. Georgii was a concertmaster of Youth Symphony Orchestra of Ukraine and performed with many orchestras and chamber ensembles that including string quartets (where one plays viola sometimes), piano trios, duets, etc. Georgii also a laureate of many all-ukraininan and international competitions, such as International violin competition "Eugen Coca" (XIX, XXI) - Kishinev, Moldova; International violin competition "Cornelia Bronzetti" (2014) - Romania; International violin competition "Grumiaux" (2017) - Brussels, Belgium; "Leonid Kogan" all-Ukrainian violin competition (2018) - Ukraine, and many others. Young artist had two recitals in the Bucharest Philharmonic (2014,2016) and took part in many masterclass with well-known professors, such as Shlomo Mintz, Midori Goto, Chaim Taub and many others. Since 2019 Georgii is studying in Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music in class of Professor Qian Zhou. Nowadays Georgii has an active performing activity and engaging in theoretical research.